Please read the following section carefully. In order to be considered as an adopter, you must:

- You must be 18 years of age or older.
- Have current photo identification showing your age and present address
- Be willing and able to provide training, medical care and loving attention for a pet
- Be willing to take your new pet to a veterinarian within 5 days for examination and treatment, AT YOUR OWN EXPENSE.
- Have your new pet vaccinated against rabies and purchase a Citrus County License annually.
- Provide your new dog with heartworm prevention medication throughout its life.
- Abide by all the rules in the adoption contract and follow all County Ordinances.

Understand that Citrus County Animal Services reserves the right to deny any adoption application. Animals who are not already spayed/neutered will be held 24-48 hours for surgery before adoption will be completed.
